10. A brief report of the event: A Voter Awareness Campaign was organised by Electoral Literacy Club, S. B Deorah College on 03/04/2024 at Vivekanda Vidya Bharati College, Beltola to educate the youth on various aspects of India's voting procedure. In the campaign, Dr Jamini Buragohain , Assistant Prof, Dept. of Political Science, acted as the Resource Person. Dr Buragohain gave an interesting talk where he introduced the students to the electoral voting and registration process. He threw light on various fundamental concepts relating to voting procedure, the need to create awareness on voting rights and how it is important for the young voters to understand and get familiarised with the voting process. The resource person made an in-depth presentation highlighting the technical details of electoral process and the responsibility of the young voters in creating a vibrant democracy. He particularly encouraged the students to take interest, be politically aware and take active part in the voting process to make India a vibrant democracy. The workshop was attended by around 43 students and faculties and led to an interesting Q&A session between them.
