10. A brief report of the event: A Voter Awareness Campaign was organised by Electoral Literacy Club, S. B Deorah College. Dr Tripti Rekha Baruah, Assistant Prof, Dept. of Political Science, was invited as the Resource Person. The resource person delivered a talk on “Importance of Voter Awareness Amongst the Youth”. Dr Baruah gave an enlightening talk where she introduced the students to the electoral voting and registration process. She highlighted how it is important for the young voters to understand and be familiarised with the voting process as they are the future of the nation. She particularly encouraged the students to take interest, be politically aware and take active part in the voting process to make India a vibrant democracy. The workshop was attended by around 85 students and faculties and led to an interesting Q&A session between them.
