

WORKSHOP ON SOFT SKILL

Resource Person : Dr.Sudipta Phukan
Asst.Prof
Department of English

No of Students : 29.
Teachers : 03

The Skill Development Cell along with the Computer Science Department of the college organised a workshop on Soft Skill as 'How to improve personality development skills' on 12th April, 2025. A group of 29 students from 2nd and 4th semester of all the three streams participated and were highly benefited with the workshop. The Resource person deliver talk on how to improve personality development skills. She highlighted on different techniques as to how students can gain confident and face different hurdles in their life. Also, how to be identify their strengths and weaknesses, work on communication skills and show interest in their thoughts and feelings. The students were very enthusiastic and showed active participation throughout the session. In this way the above-mentioned cell successfully completed the event.

Snapshots of Events:

