10. A brief report of the event: A talk on Gender Sensitisation of the Third Gender was organised by Internal Complaints Committee (GSCASH) on 31/05/2024. Dr Pallabi Baruah, Assistant Prof, Dept. of English, was invited as the Resource Person. The resource person delivered a talk on “ Gender Sensitization: The Third Gender’s Right to Dignity”. Dr Baruah gave an enlightening talk where she introduced the gathering to several fundamental concepts relating to the understanding of the third gender, their struggles, their politics and the various consequences of the neglect and apathy by the society on them. She highlighted how by empathising with the struggles of the third gender we can create an equal and safe space for them, which will lead to a more just, progressive and accountable society. The workshop was attended by around 40 students and faculties and led to an interesting Q&A session between them.
